Biddle Asks 3rd Indictment Against de Aryan

WASHINGTON—Seven persons from Los Angeles and other sections of Southern California, were named by Attorney-General Biddle as among 33 throughout the nation against whom the Department of Jusice will ask additional indictments in Washington this month for sedition law violations.

"A considerable amount of new evidence" will be presented to a District of Columbia grand jury, Biddle said. Those from this area against whom additional indictments will be sought, are:

Robert Noble, former old age pension promoter, under conviction of sedition.

Ellis O. Jones, founder of the National Copperheads, also convicted of sedition.

David M. Baxter, San Bernardino pamphlet publisher, who was indicted in Washington last year on charges of conspiring to undermine morale of the armed forces.

Herman Max Schwinn, former West Coast German-American Bund leader, whose citizenship was cancelled.

Hans Diebel, who operated a bookstore in connection with the German house here and who was denied application for citizenship.

Paquita de Shismareff, Glendale, also known as Mrs. Leslie Fry, who gained attention through reported publication of activities in the Militant Christian Patriots.

Frank K. Ferenz, convicted of violating the California anti-Subversive Act, who was active in distributing Nazi films.

Others named in Washington dispatches included C. Leon de Aryan, Editor, THE BROOM, San Diego; William Kullgren, Atascadero; and William Dudley Pelley, Noblesville, Ind.

Could Be!

Stalin wants the U. S. A. and England to open a second front in Western Europe because it will so weaken us in titanic losses and because it will draw so many Germans from the Russian front that he (Stalin) will then practically walk to Berlin, communize all of Europe and, most likely, begin the division of the east-west world with Tojo.

If Churchill and Roosevelt attempt now to appease Russia what will happen to us may be the fate of all appeasers—annihilation, this time at the hands of a combined German-Russo-Japanese Axis.—Benjamin de Casseres.

The man who hasn't had the benefit of wartime wages is now looking for a medicine dropper to siphon off his "excess purchasing power."

THE NEW DICTATOR

Hon. Hiram Johnson,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Senator:

So Senator Austin thinks Franklin Delano Roosevelt competant to rule and arrange the lives, minds, and actions of every man in America up to the age of 65, and of every woman up to the age of 50! He must expect all over those ages to be senile and useless! And the women 5 years man's inferior, mentally at least!

Out of millions of staunch, loyal Americans, I disagree, I object, I protest—vehemently.

It is unnecssary, outrageous, un-American, and above all un-Christian. Would a Christian President attempt such a thing? No. Even the Master Christian, Jesus the Christ, went about freeing people from sin, disease, slavery and death,—not taking away their rights, their homes, their loved ones, and even the clothes off their backs. This dastardly bill No. 666 of Sen. Austine makes a full-fledged Dictator of Mr. Roosevelt. Of course, our President would have plenty of able helpers—especially Mr. Rosenman and 3,000 or so others.

Are these the kind of men God created in His own image and likeness? Let the American people answer and act before we become wholly slaves.

Where is our Constitution and Bill of Rights? Ask the American people and let them see to it that it is as potent as when written. Where is our Declaration of Independence? Are we independent now? No. Who took our independence from us? Must we lose the little we have left, and see our Constitution and Bill of Rights hanging from a slender thread to a weeping willow tree?

If anything in this world will awaken the American people this infamous No. 666 ought to —and I believe it will.

With love and loyalty to the America of our Founders and Makers,

Sincerely, A CONSTITUENT.

A BIBLICAL THOUGHT

"These things doth the Lord hate: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood."—Proverbs 6-16,17.

—B—

A Missouri wife is reported as having soundly thrashed her husband for not paying his newspaper subscription on time. May Saint Peter put a couple extra strings on her harp.

PEGLER PICKETED

Westbrook Pegler, in his widely read syndicated column, has hammered for years at the National Maritime Union, among other things. This is a seamen's organization led by Joseph Curran, and Pegler insists that it is a Communist front.

Instead of answering Pegler's charges with facts, the NMU leaders habitually content themselves with spreading personal abuse of Pegler—the old, familiar name-calling, character-assinnation tactics for which the Communists in this country have long been famous.

This busines reached a climax with the recent picketing of the New York Word-Telegram offices, fountainhead of Pegler's column, by about 1,000 NMU members. The pickets sent in a delegation to the managing editor to demand that Pegler's column be killed out of the paper for keeps.

"You people better watch out," the delegation's leader was reported by the New York Times to have stated. "If you don't remove this guy, you'll have more than picket lines around this office. We're giving you warning now."

The answer was that Pegler's column stayed in the paper.

In this episode, we have an illustration of a significant fact: namely, that the great bulk of the demands heard in the United States for curtailment of freedom of speech and press come from left wingers, radicals, and kindred self-styled lovers of the human race. You hear practically no conservatives urging that we kill off the first article of the Bill of Rights. It is the totalitarians who feel that we'd be much better off if the press were permitted to print only what some American counterpart of Dr. Paul Josef Goebbels said it might print.

The answer to this is what it always was: that in a democracy, there is no substitute for free speech, free debate, the right of everybody to speak his mind, even though in some cases he may be a bit short on mind. Therefore, anybody who asks us to clip or abolish freedom of speech and press is not asking for that alone. What he is really asking is that we abandon our entire democratic system.

Like any other human organization, unions are weakened by thieves and gangsters. Pegler's attacks on corrruption do not hurt honest unions. Corruption, and not the critics who uncover thievery, is the enemy of labor organization and, for that matter, of democratic government.—Collier's.

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

de Aryan, "Fugitive from Justice"

U. S. Attorney General Francis J. Biddle announced that our editor is going to face a 3rd indictment for "having conspired with the Nazis since 1933, to demoralize the armed forces in the city of Washington, D. C."

While it is Mr. Biddle who made the announcement, the decision is not Mr. Biddle's, who is merely doing the bidding of the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, the international Jewish world-wide organization whose purpose is to destroy every voice that dares rise in protest against the tyranny of this international Jewish Gestapo and spy ring, that circles the world, and dictates policy in financial and political circles.

Naturally, now, I am preparing to return to Washington as "a fugitive from Justice" and stand up in court to answer charges. The trial will be so timed as to be the most sensational "surprise" in the 4th term campaign for Mr. Roosevelt and his new order. The idea is to prove that some of the 33 indicted had contacts with the Nazis and to spread that "contamination" to all the defendants who during the last 10 years opposed Mr. Roosevelt's new order of making promises and taking oaths of office, which were honored unfailingly in the breach. Anyone opposed to the Roosevelt, Rosenman, Lehman, Baruch, Morgenthau, Frankfurter and Rothschild dynasty in these U.S.A. IS a "Nazi". That is what these masstrials are to impress upon people during the coming 4th term campaign. The only way to prove your Americanism is to vote for Roosevelt and the New Deal.

It so happens that my old wound has opened slightly and I have to take steps to heal the hernia before I return to Washington. This, and the cost of living and of the trial expenses in the capital will tax my resources. Last year hundreds of people offered daily, sincere prayers till I was out of jail again. I am thankful for it, it steadied my spiritual life and morale. But I also have to have money to carry on The Broom in my absence; cost of living in the capital is at least $200 a month, I found that out last time, and then other expenses. The legal battle will last for a minimum of six months and perhaps eight.

The mails are still functioning.

A few dollars each month, beginning with today, will be a good investment on your part to safeguard the existence of the Republic. When a man of my type is charged with having conspired with the Nazis since 1933, what can you expect when your turn comes?' For if I am convicted of having betrayed the U. S. A. because I hold with the Founding Fathers, Washington and Jefferson and not with Roosevelt-Rosenman-Frankfurter, etc. "new order" gang, then every true American is next in line to be terrorized unless he swears allegiance to the new deal.

Our Divinely Inspired Leader

I have been called down for criticising the President. "Don't you know he is divinely inspired? How can you do such a thing? God loves America and takes care of us by inspiring our President. The new order is here to stay."

Now that is something. Where did I hear it before? Oh yes. Hitler, too, is divinely inspired leader of the Nazis, that's where I hear that thing, because, you see, God loves the German people and raised them a leader to deliver them from the nefarious treaty of Versailles and to introduce a new order in Europe.

And come to think of it, Hirohito is the very Son of Heaven to introduce a new order in Asia. As for Stalin, he has no God, so that is plain to everybody, but Churchill, of course is the most inspired one of the whole gang, for he furnishes the inspiration even to our President, Atlantic Charter, Casablanca, Quebec and more to come.

The only thing I cannot figure out is why the divinely inspired Roosevelt, Churchill and the Besboznik Stalin are in one group, or perhaps God is using even a Besboznik, but the divinely inspired Hitler and Hirohito are in an opposite group.

I never heard of such a thing as God inspiring them all to slaughter each other's people. But I am mistaken, I see, because Moses, who also was divinely inspired, reports in Numbers 31 how Jehovah told him to murder the Midianites and is quite particular in verses 17, 18.

I Went to Church

I went to church to pray and sing,
But could not pray at all
Because a lady wore a fur.
('Twas strange a thing so small
Could so disturb me that I saw
Instead of choir and priest,
A hunted brother of the woods.
A little, frightened beast.)
I could not eat the sacred bread,
I could not taste the wine.
For the tired eyes of a hunted fox
Were gazing into mine.
I went to church to find the Lord,
But found this truth instead:
Christ cannot break with those who kill
The consecrated bread.
I could not touch the sacred bread,
Nor drink the wine.
For the tortured eyes of the Crucified
Were gazing into mine.

ASSERTS LIE IS NOT TRUTH EVEN WITH REPETITION

Dear Sir: It really pained me to see a writer in the Readers' Forum (letter of Mr. Gladwell, Aug. 28) falling for the line so persistently and insistently proclaimed by our war-makers that it was Japan who started off the aggressor nations by her invasion of Manchukuo in 1931. The truth, skillfully obscured though it be, is that it was Soviet Russia, only the year before, 1929-1930, that not only invaded, but completely sovietized Manchukuo's adjoining province of Mongolia.

When I used to observe the faithless politicians and the alienminded clique befuddling the unsuspecting public into this war, they all kept hammering home the same line, via radio, press and movies, until today it has become one of those "well known facts that aren't so".

Incidentally it wasn't Herr Hitler, but Lord Northcliffe, British newspaper magnate, in the last war who first pointed out that a lie repeated often enough will be accepted by enough people to work. And when I read Sir Gilbert Parker's story ("Harpers" magazine, April or May, 1919) after the war of how he, as head of the British Ministry of Information, used the movies, newspapers and certain pulpits here to propagandize us into that mess, there was no doubt in my mind of the efficacy of the trick. The only difference this time, as I see it, was that the lies of pro-Communist radio chains were added to exploit the ill-concealed alien-minded contempt for American mentality.

"SOMEONE LIVES TRUE TO HIS TRUST"

My dear Mr. de Aryan:

Friends have given me the enclosed $2.25 for some more copies of your last number of the Broom, No. 52, Sept. 20th, which is so very fine. We want to get it around to many people who will set to work with it and help the cause along.

I am just delighted with your Broom, keep up the good work and we will help you sweep this country clean with it. My subscription must be due—and more—but please do not discontinue sending it, I will soon send you another installment.

I just can't tell you how much we have enjoyed this Sept. 20th issue. How grateful I am that there is someone who does live true to his trust. We sorely need such as you, today.

Gartefully yours, — — Hollywood.

PREFERS OWN WIFE

Ray Robinson, the I. N. S. correspondent at Guadalcanal, wrote that Mrs. Roosevelt kissed her radical political protege, the inveterate professional youth of rising 30 summers, Joe Lash, for whom strenuous efforts were made to obtain a free commission in the Navy, now a sergeant in the Army.

Robinson also said he asked Private Martin Bazar of Providence, R. I., how he felt about being visited by the President's wife and that Bazar replied, "I'd rather be visited by my own."

MY ADVENTURE IN AMERICA

By C. Leon de Aryan

PROLOGUE

The time is here when I may fully disclose the purpose of my coming to the U. S. A., and what I have already accomplished since Sept. 2, 1912, when I landed in Baltimore on a British tramp steamer that brought me over from Bombay, the present headquarters of the Parsees, or Sun-Worshippers, in India.

On the surface I was another immigrant who crossed the various big ponds by working for his passage like a common deckhand. Esoterically I am the man who has been sent by the Mother commumity in Asia to test the claims of Freedom in these U. S. A.

You must have a man who dares take you at your word and though superbly educated, plays the role of a simple laborer and passes through all the stages of this lowly calling as a newly arrived immigrant who henceforth is instructed by telepathy from the home community, what to do and how to expose false claims while encouraging every effort to produce and maintain on this continent a Republic where the fires of Freedom are daily kindled and fed until not only this continent, but all the world is turned into paradise on earth.

At this time I should be sitting down and writing a book. A book that will revolutionize thought here and from here reach into every corner of the earth, for it is the thought that has been impelling you ever since you heard the word Freedom.

But to write a book at one prolonged sitting is a thing for which I am not financially equipped. I am writing this on Oct. 6, 1943 in Los Angeles. Have met unexpectedly with some people and experiences that have simply removed all restrictions which up to now kept me incognito. So, I am writing my book now in installments. I am quite sure that the first chapter itself is such a tremendous bombshell, its explosion will be felt from one end of the Globe to the other, everywhere in the world.

The U. S. Atty. General Francis J. Biddle is helping me beyond my keenest expectations to spread the message and keep my work before the world's audience by a Federal Grand Jury in the District of Columbia for a fictitious conspiracy to demoralize the armed forces. The truth of the matter is that I am challenging and calling to account every government on the face of the earth which is waging war in the Name of God. Such claims are blasphemy and taking the holy Name of the Lord in vain, for God is Love.

My procedure in writing of my adventure in America is newspaper style. I am starting with the present. Projecting the hottest issue in the first illustrating my story with reminiscences from my personal life. By the time the book is written you'll have my whole biography, an example of what man can do on earth when he enters the service of God and never looks back, or right or left, but faithfully follows the Lights of Truth to its destination.

Do not be disturbed by the fact that I am labelled a seditionist. In no other way could I have received world wide notice at so little expense to myself. The Lord moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform.

Wars are the result of men's refusal to obey God and follow in His son's footsteps on earth. God loves all men and races alike and never chooses one race of people over another. Those who deny His impartial Love of all men by claiming to be His chosen people are the war-makers upon His plan of Life on earth.

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

Is Mr. Roosevelt Divinely Inspired ?

"You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free", said the blessed Savior. But Mr. Roosevelt says differently. "You shall censor the truth, and I am the censor, then you'll get not one but four freedoms, everywhere in the world".

"Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God", says Jesus. But Mr. Roosevelt charges them with conspiracy to demoralize the armed forces in the city of Washington, D. C. and locks them up during election time to get his henchmen elected, without daring to bring the "conspirators" to trial. Yes, they were arrested on his presidential warrant, if you doubt it.

"Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you".

According to Jesus we must keep God's commandments to produce heaven on earth. According to Mr. Roosevelt we must disregard not only the commandments when they conflict with the "new deal", but even our oath of allegiance to the "horse and buggy constitution" and to everything that is holy and equitable, because, otherwise, we are disloyal to him, and he is the only indispensable person in the whole United States of America. Nobody else is able to execute the office of president. Execute is right. And he is the chief executioner, for there is not much of Constitutional Rights left after he executed them.

According to Jesus we must love God first and the neighbor as ourselves. According to Mr. Roosevelt and Churchill, too, we must forget God and all varities of religion and the Sermon on the Mount, because the Atlantic charter supercedes them all. Or does it?

Wounded Care Poses Problem

Mrs. Roosevelt's Views

HONOLULU, H. I.—Rehabilitation of the war wounded poses a serious and delicate problem for America now and in the postwar years, and it must be solved, says Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Here after a 20,730 mile flying tour of the Pacific war theater during which she visited hospitals at every opportunity, the president's wife told newsmen that:

"We will have more handicapped men—who have lost arms, a leg, an eye—after this war than we ever have had before."

Work for Handicapped

Returning these wounded and crippled men to the nation's social life "will be a problem", she conceded, adding:

"We can prepare now to place these men in useful jobs after the war. Employers already have been called upon to use handicapped workers. They will have to be asked to take more—and they will be willing to do it. The problem that concerns me most is how these returning men will re-enter their social lives."

She cited an incident to her knowledge of a soldier whose face was badly scarred on one side. He took a girl companion into an Australian restaurant.

Woman Starts to Weep

Patrons stared at him. One woman looked, turned away and began weeping. The soldier arose abruptly and walked out.

"That's an illustration of the problem I mean," Mrs. Roosevelt said. "One's natural reaction at seeing men like this is first to feel sorry for them and then draw away.

"There remains a great job adjustment and much work and education among the people. We must realize that these men urgently desire to feel independent and believe they can do things themselves."

SHE SHOULD COME TO CALIFORNIA

A new allergy has been unearthed by the Army medical gang. Please help us pass it around so the whole nation may laugh.

A girl reported from the Washington (D. C.) Star went to Ft. McPherson, Ga., with a batch of W. A. C.'s. Writing in the Star of her experiences she tells of breaking out in a rash after her inoculations.

At the dispensary they told her she was allergic to Georgia.

De Priest Requests Instructions to Grand Juries

PROTECTION AGAINST "CROWN"

You are to regard yourself as a palladium, a refuge and a bulwark for the plain citizen against unjust prosecutions. As the great Justice Field (in 2 Sawy. 668) wrote:

"In the struggles . . . in England between the powers of the king and the rights of the subject it (the grand jury) often stood as a barrier against persecution in his name, until at length it came to be regarded as an institution by which the subject was rendered SECURE against OPPRESSION from unfounded PROSECUTIONS OF THE CROWN. . . . .

"In this country, from the popular character of our institutions, there has seldom been any contest between the government and the citizen which required the existence of the grand jury as a protection against oppressive action of the government. Yet the institution was adopted in this country, and is continued and . . . designed as a means not only of bringing to trial persons accused of public offenses upon just grounds, but also as a means of PROTECTING THE CITIZENS AGAINST UNFOUNDED ACCUSATION, whether it comes from the GOVERNMENT, or be prompted by partisan passion or private enmity."

Justice Dick said. in the Kilpatrick case previously referred to: "A grand jury is a component part of the court, and is under its general supervision and control. Grand jurors may be punished for contempt, for any wilful misconduct or neglect of duty. but they are independent in their actions in determining questions of fact, and no investigation can ever be made as to how a grand juror voted, or what opinions he expressed on matters before him." (16 Fed. 765).

This, of course, does not apply to the testimony of witnesses or the conduct of prosecutors, which may be investigated when justice requires. Twenty-three grand jurors testified in 16 Fed. 765.

Justice Sanborn (in McKinney, v. U. S., 199 Fed. 34) declared, as follows:

"The grand jury is an organ of the court, subject to its jurisdiction and direction, and it is one of the legal duties of the court to SEE THAT its acts and findings ACCORD WITH AND ARE NOT IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION and the law. The Constitution and the law are superior to the theoretical secrecy of the proceedings of the grand jury, and the COURTS SHOULD NEVER PERMIT THE LATTER TO INDUCE, PROTECT, OR PERPETUATE VIOLATIONS of the former, or private or public wrongs."

And so, you grand jurors are to consider yourselves absolutely independent and aloof from the prosecutor. You are to keep a cold and impartial eye constantly upon him and his conduct, being ever on the watchout to protect witnesses from duress, coercion or brow-beating. The good prosecutor is supposed to be impartial himself, but often is not.

Anyone of you, the foreman especially, may ask questions of witnesses. If the prosecutor makes any attempt to explain either law or evidence, you are to halt him, if you have to leave the grand jury room and report it to the court. The court is the only person to explain the law to you.

YOU CANNOT LEGALLY CONSIDER THE MINUTES OR STENOGRAPHIC NOTES OF ANY PREVIOUS GRAND JURY.

You are to be governed by the same rules of evidence as a petit jury. To quote again from Justice Dick (16 Fed. 765):

"Investigations before grand juries must be made in accordance with the well-established rules of evidence, and they must bear the best legal proofs of which the case admits. No evidence should be received by a grand jury which would not be admissible in a court upon the trial of a cause. Hearsay evidence upon questions before a grand jury is no more admissable than before the court.

"Whether a witness is or is not an expert as to any particular science or art is to be determined by the court before he can be admitted to testify before a grand jury."

Only one person from the prosecutor's office, aside from a stenographer, should be in the room with you. When you take up your deliberations and discussions on the case, the prosecutors and stenographers must not be present.

Plan To Take Over Farms -- First !

By Spencer H. Dyer, in El Paso Herald-Post

Representative Frederick C. Smith of Ohio, who embarrassed the Food Delegates by attending their secret conclave as a congressional observer in an informal talk before the House Banking and Currency committee said: "No doubt the American farmers will me interested in learning they are to be the first group to be liquidated under the grandiose scheme of the Soviet delegation, headed by Alexy D. Krutikov, who brought with him what practically amounted to blueprints for the abolishing of individual ownership of farms, the plan calling for the setting up of the same form of collectivization of farming as exists in Russia."

While it is disconcerting to find in this morass of political intrigue an alien seeking aid should plot to take from our farmers their right to free enterprise, and reduce them to the status of a Russian kulak. We owe this to the Russian delegation, it has shown us we can depend upon our Congress, and in doing so, it has thrown the spotlight upon the clever methods in which the bureaucrats whip their communistic organization into being, and the timely warning allows us to do something about that.

Willis 77 Stolen and Found

As stated in last week's issue, the car belonging to my son Fred was stolen at night from a local parking station. It hurt me very much because without it I am helpless as far as collections of bills is concerned. The street car traffic is much too cumbersome and slow to enable me to call on my customers who are distributed over a very wide area, some of which is too far from car lines.

I had spent the evening in the company of a friend who prides herself on being a metaphysician, one of those people who always tell you to look for the good in everything and never see the bad side of things. So I called her up and told her my visit with her cost me $300.

She immediately denied it and said the car would be found and that whoever took it was doing me a great favor. Of course, I gladly accepted her version and promised to hold the thought with her accordingly. We disagree in most things, she is an admirer of Roosevelt and she hates THE BROOM as a sort of desecrator of Roosevelt's divine "inspirations", so she said we would agree to work together on one thing at least.

And as she said so it came to pass, because according to my "faith" in it I was rewarded. Next morning Mrs. A. J. Kahn, at corner of Dwight and Bancroft streets, phoned Mrs. de Aryan that the car was parked, abandoned, with lights burning in front of her house. I went and got it. All my copies of THE BROOM for two weeks distribution were gone, some good cakes and apple turnovers I had bought for my supper and lunch. My manuscript on some articles for the paper and all the good tools from the box. The battery was dead and the muffler pipe was torn out of its moorings. Otherwise the car was in order.

I went to my battery man in East San Diego at Glenn's service station, 4192 University ave., to get a rent battery but he had none to spare so I had to drive to 1401 Broadway, to G. A. Phillips. The car had to be pushed to get started but then it ran. While the rent battery was being put in I noticed the torn and loose muffler pipe and asked the attendant to get down and have a look under the car.

For over a week I had been trying to get a new muffler since the old one had rusted out. The thieves evidently had tried to fix the exhaust noise and tore the pipe off its moorings in the attempt. The battery attendant advised me to go to Billy Edwards' lot, at 1444 Broadway and ask his yardman McCutcheon to fix the muffler. I did. But Mac said he could not do it. As it happened Barney Ames was there too ,and Mac asked Ames whether he could not get the muffler fixed. Ames took a look at it and said he would. They took the car over to Cor. 16th and E streets where Ames has a garage and repair shop and installed a new muffler and pipe, which I had not been able to find for over 10 days.

Thus the kids who stole the car and my papers and cakes and wrenches in fact had done me a favor for now I found a man who put in that new muffler.

Moral? There ain't none. Or should we say there is no ill wind that does not blow us some good.The moral then would be to let it blow, what else is there to do any way?
